Presentation / 简介

Today we stand on the edge of a great adventure. Graduation brings it the bittersweet feelings of immense joy on one hand, but also realization that we may not be seeing our friends anymore. We are going forward and leaving behind friends, teachers and old ways. It is the time to growth and learning about the world. Some of us will continue with our studies, while others will go onto other things. Congratulations to all those friends who have completed their Chinese Language Course, Bachelor's, Master's or Doctoral Degree program this year.

We can all clearly remember our first day in Beijing. All we could really think about at that time was graduating and returning home. However, in between the beginning and ending of our studies was; where we choose to live our best lives. The formation of friendships, birthday celebrations, the weight gain and loss, the examinations that eventually led to our thesis defense and of course the cultural assimilation experience with language, people and food.

Coming to China, we each brought with us a unique cultural identity. What we have created is a diversity that has opened us up to the world, shaped our experiences and enlightened our perception of life. We are different yet we shared in a common goal, to excel in our studies and to take a step closer to achieving our goals and dreams. We have gained a lot more than what one can expect; valuable friendships that span all over the globe. As ambassadors of our countries, we have shared with others, our individual and unique cultures. From this, we have matured in our ability to tolerate and respect each other regardless of race, ethnicity or religion.

Study abroad experience in China has indeed been an eye opener for all of us. We came to admire the hard work and discipline being exercised by the citizens. It has also given us the true feeling of globalization as we have come to meet different people from different countries, each with their own culture yet sharing the same purpose of self improvement and development. This has taught us that culture is gradually becoming insignificant as people put aside cultural differences and co-exist in harmony. China, which is a country of great cultural diversity, is home to numerous attractions and is gradually rising as an influential actor in the international setting. We have come to appreciate cultural diversity and realize that different cultures can indeed co-exist through appreciating the beauty of diversity. The thoughts and attitudes we nurture in our mind determine the quality of life's experiences that come our way!

We are the manifestations of prayers, aspirations and the hard work of our ancestors and their belief that someday their descendents, i.e. you and me, could achieve such milestone. Our lives here have been a culmination of myriad experiences. Who can forget the fond memories, the different trips, the parties and the countless events? It's a matter of fact that these memories can't be forgotten. Some of us would wished that they should have travelled more and some may wished they should have more focused on learning Chinese language to start their careers in some Chinese enterprise.

Life is a continuous journey and it is just the ending of only one chapter, but this is also the beginning of a new chapter. As we stand at the crossroads, let us look back and be thankful for the opportunity. The friendships we have cultivated and the lessons we have learnt, both inside and outside classroom will be valuable in the life long journey. Let us keep in touch with each other, as we spread out to all corners of the world.

We have met some great people that have guided us along our journey thus far, without their help, we cannot imagine where we would stand today; and for that we must remain grateful. At Beijing indeed we have gained a very remarkable tool of knowledge and research skills, which will not only remain with us for life but will indeed, always; guarantee that we would not be dependent on any one in winning our bread and butter.

Sultan Ullah
